Summary: On August 26, 2003, Dan Richard, Senior Vice President of Public Affairs for Pacific Gas & Electric Company (PG&E), spoke by telephone with Cmmr. Kennedy. During the course of a procedural discussion on the timing of the Commission's decision, Richard indicated that PG&E believed that its remittance obligation to the Department of Water Resources (DWR) for 2001-2002 should be offset or netted against the anticipated DWR over-remittance for 2003. Richard indicated that proposed customer refund amounts would be unaffected by a netting of the DWR payments.

Summary: On August 28, 2003, Dan Carroll, counsel for the Central Valley Project Preference Power Post-2004 Implementation Group (CVP Group), met with Julie Fitch, advisor to Pres. Peevey, in San Francisco. Also present were David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Stuart Robertson, consultant for CVP Group. Carroll addressed the draft decision (DD), which grants in part and denies in part CVP Group's motion for expedited clarification of the scope of issues. Carroll requested that the DD be held so that there would be time to consider the CVP Group's motion to reopen and supplement record. Robertson pointed out that the CVP Group is not trying to avoid costs for which its members should be liable, and in fact, the CVP Group had agreed that it was proper for certain of its members to be responsible for the Bond Charge; however, evidence exists that shows they should not be liable for Department of Water Resources' future contracting costs. With respect to the issue in the DD concerning authority to collect Cost Responsibility Surcharges from preference power customers, Carroll stated that Pacific Gas and Electric Company should not be allowed to claim a right to collect charges which it does not have authority to collect and that the DD should be revised to recognize that.
